PARVULA cur fallis iuuenes tua signa secutos ?
An reficis vires, munera num'ue refers ?
Retia dum volucrem faciunt, an viribus vfa
Tu propriis extra limina salua fugis ?
Mox inuenta places, iterumque redempta moueris,
Ac solita toties isque redisque via.
Aegris haud verita es certam spondere salutem,
Qua sanos priuas, inque furore noces.
Exhauris numos, aliena laude triumphas,
Conueniunt nugae, fictaque verba tibi.
Non haec lex olim pilulæ, nec abusibus istis
Caupo tuam implebant atria trita manum.
Aut igitur sumptus minuas, & tempora multis
Restitue, aut nunquam sufferat aura leuem.

Collection Arrangements

Paid for items will be available to collect from Forum Auctions' premises at Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS BY PRIOR APPOINTMENT. Collection appointments can be made with info@forumauctions.co.uk. Please note that parking is available and we do not fall into the London congestion zone. We can help arrange packing and shipping of purchased lots, or clients may use their own carrier. We respectfully ask all buyers to settle invoices promptly.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR BUYERS AT AUCTION

1. Introduction. The following notices are intended to assist buyers, particularly those that are new to our saleroom and internet bidding platforms. Our auctions are governed by our Terms and Conditions of Business incorporating the Terms of Consignment, the Terms of Sale supplemented by any notices that are displayed in our saleroom, the online catalogue listing or announced by the auctioneer at the auction. Our Terms and Conditions of Business are available for inspection at our saleroom and online at www.forumauctions.co.uk. Our staff will be happy to help you with any questions you may have regarding our Terms and Conditions of Business. Please make sure that you read our Terms of Sale set out in this catalogue and on our website carefully before bidding in the auction. In registering to bid with us you are committing to be bound by our Terms of Sale.
2. Agency. As auctioneers we usually act on behalf of the seller whose identity, for reasons of confidentiality, is not normally disclosed. If you buy at auction your contract for the goods is with the seller, not with us as auctioneer.
3. Estimates. Estimates are intended to indicate the hammer price that a particular lot may achieve. The lower estimate may represent the reserve price (the minimum price for which a lot may be sold) and cannot be below the reserve price. Estimates do not include the buyer's premium, VAT or other taxes and fees (where chargeable). Estimates may be altered by a saleroom notice.
4. Buyer's Premium. The Terms of Sale oblige you to pay a buyer's premium on the hammer price of each lot purchased. All lots are offered under the Auctioneer's Margin Scheme and VAT (at 20%) is included within the buyer's premium. Our rate of buyer's premium is 30% of the first £300,000 of the hammer price, reducing to 24% of the hammer price from £300,001 to £5,000,000 and then 15% of the hammer price in excess of £5,000,000. Buyers wishing to purchase lots outside the margin scheme must notify us and will be subject to VAT (currently at 20%) on the hammer price in addition to buyer's premium (and other applicable charges) which may be reclaimed as input VAT or in the event of export outside the EU.
5. Items with zero rated VAT. Please note that no VAT is added to the buyers' premium on certain zero rated goods, such as qualifying books.
6. Inspection of goods by the buyer. You will have ample opportunity to inspect the goods and must do so for any lots that you might wish to bid for. Please note carefully the exclusion of liability for the condition of lots set out in Clauses 5 and 8 of our Terms of Sale.
7. Export of goods. If you intend to export goods you must find out in advance if
 - a. there is a prohibition on exporting goods of that character e.g. if the goods contain prohibited materials such as ivory
 - b. they require an Export Licence on the grounds of exceeding a specific age and/or monetary value threshold as set by the Export Licensing unit. We are happy to make the submission of necessary applications on behalf of our buyers but we will charge for this service only to cover the costs of our time.
8. Bidding. Bidders will be required to register with us before bidding. Purchases will be invoiced to the buyer's registered name and address only. When first registering for an account with us you will need to provide us with proof of your identity in a form acceptable to us. IN REGISTERING TO BID YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY OUR TERMS OF SALE REGARDLESS OF YOUR METHOD OF BIDDING AND IN PLACING A BID YOU ARE MAKING AN IRREVOCABLE AND ENFORCEABLE COMMITMENT TO PURCHASE THE LOT.
9. Commission bidding. You may leave commission bids with us indicating the maximum amount (excluding the buyer's premium and/or any applicable VAT, fees or other taxes) you authorise us to bid on your behalf for a lot. We will execute commission bids at the lowest price possible having regard only to the reserve and other competing bids on the lot. Please note that we accept commission bids at standard bidding increments and reserve the right to reduce an off-increment bid down to the next lowest bidding increment or otherwise at our sole discretion.
10. Live online bidding. When using our BidFORUM platform to participate in the auction through your account on our website there will be no additional charges. If you are using a third party live bidding platform then additional fees may be applicable. We will invoice these to you as an additional service and any applicable VAT will be separated out.
11. Methods of Payment. We accept payments only in the currency in which the invoice is issued and payment is due within 3 working days of the auction. We process card payments securely over our website and accept and all major debit and credit cards issued by a UK or EU bank free of charge from personally issued cards only. If paying with a corporate card, or from outside the EU, an additional 3% charge will be levied on the invoice total. We also accept bank transfers, cash payments up to an equivalent of €10,000, and cheques issued by a UK bank. All funds need to have cleared into our account before items are collected. For bank transfers, please quote the Invoice Number as the payee reference:
Our bank details for electronic transfers are:

IBAN: GB44HBUK40040912213079
BIC: HBUKGB4106D
12. Collection and storage. Please note what the Terms of Sale say about collection and storage. It is important that you pay for and collect your goods promptly. Any delay may result in you having to pay storage charges of at least £1.50 per Lot per day as set out in Clause 7 of our Terms of Sale and interest charges of 1.5% per month on the Total Amount Due as set out in Clause 15 of our Terms of Sale.
13. Loss and Damage to Goods. We are not authorised by the FCA to provide insurance services. Liability for a lot passes to the buyer on the fall of the hammer or conclusion of an online auction (as applicable). In the event that you wish for us to continue to accept liability for your purchased lots this must be agreed with us in writing in advance of the sale and any agreed charges are payable before collection of the goods.
14. Symbols within the catalogue
 - a. ARR denotes a lot where Artist's Resale Right or Droit de Suite royalty charges may be applicable to the Lot. Presently these charges are levied on a sliding scale at 4% of the hammer price up to Euro 50,000; 2% from Euro 50,001 to 200,000; 1% from Euro 200,001 to 350,000; 0.5% from Euro 350,001 to 500,000; and 0.25% above Euro 500,000 subject always to a maximum royalty charge of Euro 12,500. We will collect and pay royalty charges on your behalf and calculate the £ sterling equivalent of the Euro amount.
 - b. IMPORT denotes that Import VAT at 5% is payable on the hammer price of the Lot.
 - c. VAT denotes that VAT at 20% is payable on the hammer price, which may be reclaimable as input VAT.
15. Shipping. We can assist with the packing and shipping of your purchases by arrangement with our shipping department. Please contact shipping@forumauctions.co.uk for a list of shippers we regularly use together with indicative pricing for packing and shipping.

ENGLISH AND CONTINENTAL MANUSCRIPTS

West Yorkshire. - INDENTED GRANT AND QUITCLAIM BY MARGERIA DE WETELAIA [WHEATLEY] TO JOHN DE WELEDUN, of the dower which she may claim in the lands [Clayton, Crossland etc.] of her late husband Robert de Whetelaia, which John de Weledun now holds as of his fee, witnesses: Robert de Stapelton, William de Byat, Adam de Holanda and others, manuscript in Latin, on vellum, 10 lines, in brown ink, in a fine charter hand, indented at head, folds, slightly browned, white wax seal with good impression, small crack, edges chipped, 72 x 148mm., [c. 1220's].

Persian manuscript. - LEAF FROM AN ILLUSTRATED SHAHNAMEH, commissioned by the library of Qiwan al-Dawla wa'l-Din Hasan, the vizier of Fars, with a later added gouache illustration of a battle scene with three horsemen, two of whom brandish swords, attacking a soldier on foot carrying a shield and also wielding a sword standing against a walled background with the heads of two figures looking on from windows, the rest of the background in red, text in small naskh script in black ink in 6 columns, red rules, some repaired tears and abrasions causing loss to text, edges frayed, some soiling and spotting, but generally legible and in good condition, 360 x 290mm., ?Shiraz, [at the end of the month of Ramadan in 741 AH, ie mid-March 1341AD].

* A leaf from part 3 of this important illustrated Shahnameh, the colophon of which is now in the Aga Khan Museum in Toronto (AKM37v), and other leaves from which are located mostly in the Chester Beatty Library (CBL Per 110). The scribe mentioned on the colophon is Hasan ibn Muhammad ibn 'Ali ibn Husaini, known as al-Mausili. This section of the text, from the story of Bozorgmehr, covers Kasra Noushinravan.

The painting would appear to be a later addition, filling a space probably intentionally left blank at the time of copying the text, although there appear to be 42 missing verses between the last verse before the painting (102) on the recto and the first verse on verso (144). Bozorgmehr interprets the King's dream and gains favour at the court, later becoming the King's vizier, but there is no mention of a battle in the original text - the text focusses more on Bozorgmehr's advice to the King on how to rule - so the depicted scene appears to be something of an anomaly.

Literature: A Reconstruction and Preliminary Account of the 1341 Shahnama, with Some Further Thoughts on Early Shahnama Illustration in Hillenbrand (ed.) 2000, pp.236-245.

Illuminated manuscript. - SINGLE LEAF FROM A BOOK OF HOURS WITH YOUNG MALE AND FEMALE SAINTS IN THE INITIALS, IN THE HAND OF THE RENAISSANCE MASTER-SCRIBE BARTOLOMEO SANVITO, manuscript in Latin, on parchment, single leaf with a historiated initial on each side, the first a 'D' (opening "Deus in[adiu]torium [meum] ...", versicle for None in the Hours of the Cross) in gilt edged red, enclosing a bust of a young male saint with long flowing blond hair and a hairline thin gold halo, the whole initial on purple grounds, the second another 'D' (opening "Deus in adiutorium meum ...", versicle for Vespers in the Hours of the Cross) in same enclosing a young female saint with a headscarf and a liquid gold halo, all on green grounds with tiny flowers overlaid in liquid gold, one gilt-edged yellow initial on red grounds with similar gilt flowers in its upper and lower compartments, rubrics in liquid gold or blue ornamental capitals, two one-line simple blue initials, single column of 12 lines of the sublime humanist script of Bartolomeo Sanvito (from "...ficatus V. Adoramus te christe &c." at end of Sext, to "Sicut erat Alleluia. Hymnus ..." in Vespers), signs of offset from other facing pages when in parent volume (with a few characters from 4 lines of text damaged, and text in reverse offset over surface of second initial), small spots and stains, else in good and fresh condition, approximately 118 x 80mm. (written space: 67 x 47mm.), framed and glazed with glass on both side, [Italy (Rome)], [early 1480s].

* Bartolomeo Sanvito (1435-1511) was a Paduan, who blazed a path in Renaissance Rome as "one of the most active and famous scribes of his generation, one recognized by modern calligraphers as the greatest pioneer of a type of cursive humanistic script called 'italica'" (A.C. de la Mare and L. Nuvoloni, Bartolomeo Sanvito, 2009, p. 15). In addition he worked as a miniaturist, and in total his hand can be detected in over 120 manuscripts, as well as others to which he contributed headings or epigraphic capitals. His name appears in only two of these: the Evangelary and Epistolary that he copied and probably illuminated for the collegiate church of Santa Giustina in Monselice, with seven others signed with his initials 'BS'. He collected Roman stone inscriptions, but maintained a scribal as well as antiquarian interest in them, and the impressions of these can be seen in the crisp, almost chiselled, initials on this leaf.

The parent manuscript of the present leaf was evidently a Book of Hours in some form, with most surviving leaves coming from the Penitential Psalms, Litany and Office of the Dead, with a lavishly illuminated leaf once opening of the Hours of the Cross emerging in Christie's (online sale), 20 November 2013, lot 46 (see de la Mare and Nuvoloni, p. 276, Peter Kidd's online blog for October 2013, and C. de Hamel, Gilding the Lilly, 2010, no. 77). The present leaf also comes from the Hours of the Cross, and like the Christie's leaf has more significant illumination than almost all other recorded leaves. The parent volume came into the ownership of the teacher and bookbreaker Otto Ege (1888-1951), and was dispersed, with him giving two leaves to the calligrapher James Hayes in 1948-49. It is Gwara Handlist 79 in the list of books owned and dispersed by Ege (S. Gwara, Otto Ege's Manuscripts, 2013, pp. 146-47, with records of six individual leaves all in North American institutions). To this de la Mare and Nuvoloni added four more leaves in three private collections, one of which (the Takamiya collection) has now passed to the Beinecke in Yale (p. 276). This may well be among the last opportunities for a collector or institution to acquire a sample of this important scribe's hand.

Leaves from this precious manuscript are of the utmost rarity on the market, and apart from the present leaf and the Christie's leaf only one other has appeared at auction: a text leaf sold in Sotheby's, 26 November 1985, lot 83.

£3,000 - 4,000

Charles I's Army - Astley (Jacob, first Baron Astley of Reading, royalist army officer, 1579-1652) A MUSTER BOOKE OF THE KYNGS MAJESTY'S ARMY... taken the 25th of March 1641 As also the names of the several Counties, charged with Conductors, Carters, and Horses, in the Artillarye, upon this expedicion, with directions, and Consideracions from Sir Jacob Astley Knight, sargent Major general, of the said army, unto the Collonells, and Commanders in the same. 1641, manuscript, 85pp. excluding blanks, ruled in red throughout, a few small stains, central fold, original limp vellum, lettered direct on upper cover, covers torn with loss at lower margins, upper cover large stain, creased and yellowed, folio (298 x 203mm.), [England, Ripon], dated in text 1641.

 THE ARMY OF CHARLES I ON THE BRINK OF THE CIVIL WAR.

Written shortly before the First Civil War, this manuscript provides details of 16 infantry regiments, 5 cavalry regiments, including the names of officers and the number of men, in addition to the officers and specialists in the artillery train (from one tentkeeper to 11 bridge-makers). It lists many of the prominent officers in the Royalist army who later fought against each other in the Civil War. Jacob Astley, Sergeant-Major General in the king's army was a soldier of longstanding experience, having fought in the Dutch wars, and the recent disastrous Scottish Bishop's war. Others featured include Lord Goring (1608-57), who later fought doggedly in the West Country for the king and Algernon Percy, 10th Earl of Northumberland (1602-68) who was a prominent supporter of parliament.

Chess.- Johannes Gallensis SUMMA COLLATIONUM, SIVE COMMUNILOQUIUM, ?FIRST EDITION, collation: [a-z⁸ A-I⁸ K⁶], 262 ff., 27 lines plus headline, gothic type, two- to four-line initials in red, red parphs, initial strokes and underlining, very good margins with early manuscript sidenotes and copious small lection marks for reading aloud, plus subject headings including 'de ludo schacio exposius'; contemporary blind-stamped calf over wooden boards from the bindery of the Kartause Marienburg (Weddern, near Duelmen, Westphalia), 2 clasps and remains of leather straps, rebacked and with new endpapers, corners rubbed, 4to (210 x 138mm.), Cologne, Ulrich Zel, [c.1472].

 Generally regarded as the first edition, closely followed by another Cologne edition dated 1472, printed by Arnold Ther Hoernen. This manual for priests and preachers is most notable for being the first printed book to describe, albeit in moral/allegorical terms, the game of Chess. Pars 1, Distich 10, Caput 7 includes the exposition beginning "Mundus iste totus quoddam scaccarium est, cuius unus punctus est albus et alias niger" (the world resembles a chessboard which is chequered white and black) and ending with the caution that if a man falls into sin "in isto scaccio dyabolus dicit eschack" (in this game of chess the devil says Check). The moves of the various pieces are described in symbolic terms: the King can move in all directions because his will is law; the Knight's move consists of a straight move and a sidelong one, to illustrate his legitimate powers and his illegal extortions; the Bishop moves obliquely 'because nearly every bishop misuses his office through cupidity'; and the Queen's move of just one square diagonally (under the medieval rules, before her power and scope were greatly enlarged in the Renaissance) 'is aslant only, because women are so greedy that they will take nothing except by rapine and injustice' (H.J.R. Murray, A History of Chess, 1913, p.530).

It is rare at auction, with only two copies (including this in 2017) recorded since 1906. ISTC lists 6 copies in North America, but none of which at Harvard, Yale, Morgan, Huntington, LC, Folger or Newberry.

Geography.- Dionysius Periegetes. DE SITU ORBIS, translated by Antonius Beccaria, FIRST EDITION, collation: a-d⁸ e¹⁰, 42 ff., the last blank, 24-27 lines, Roman type, text of a1r within woodcut white vine on black border with shield within roundel at foot, woodcut white on black decorative initials, occasional later ink marginalia, outer margins trimmed, with some loss to printed side-notes in places, foxed, some staining, modern binding of ?older vellum over boards, soiled, small 4to, (200 x 140mm.), [Venice], [Bernhard Maler, Erhard Ratdolt & Peter Löslein], 1477.

 Rare first edition of this compendium of geographical descriptions of the known world. Here in its first prose translation by the Veronese humanist Antonio Beccaria, who was secretary to Humphrey, Duke of Gloucester, himself a great patron of the humanistic arts. The final two leaves contain a list of countries and islands in Europe, Africa and Asia. As well as one of the earliest references to China ('Thina') in Western literature, we find information on the gems and minerals of various countries. Also, amongst the updated material from our translator, we read about the merits of Ireland's horses and that country's use of peat.

Woodwose.- Tuberinus (Johannes) CARMEN AD GRAVEM: SANTUMQUE SENATUM LIPSENSEM: DE ORGIIS CORPORIS CHRISTI PUBLICI ASSERTORIS, FIRST EDITION, collation: A-B4 fine large woodcut of a Woodwose (or wild hairy man of the forest) to title, copious contemporary German ink annotations throughout modern boards with gilt-lettered black morocco label to upper cover, 4to (215 x 157mm.), Leipzig, Wolfgang Stoeckel, [c.1511].

★ A rare work, with an insight into contemporary Leipzig learning through the copious notes of a student. The large woodcut depicts a Woodwose, or hairy wild man of the forest, who carries a shield bearing the arms of the city of Leipzig. The setting of the text provides ample room for inter-linear and marginal notes.

★ The handsomely printed sole edition edited by the Strasbourg humanist Ottmar Nachtgall, also known as Luscinius. He had enthusiastically introduced the study of Greek in his hometown, preparing Greek grammars and texts for the use of teachers, students, and adults interested in learning the language. He was also a fine musician, publishing his Institutiones Musicae in the same year as this edition of Lucian, and later becoming organist of St. Thomas's in Strasbourg. This is the fourth German book printed in Greek and the second classical Greek text, preceded by the 1513 Batrachomyomachia and two Horae only.

Weiditz (Hans, the younger).- Brunfels (Otto) PRECATIONES BIBLICAE SANCTORVM PATRVM, FIRST EDITION, ff. [8], 91, [1], woodcut title in red and black, with fine chiaroscuro woodcut by Hans Weiditz the younger depicting Hezekiah being healed by Isaiah, historiated woodcut borders by Weiditz featuring images of cherubs, grotesques, hounds, bears, children's toys and noise-making apparatus, and a fox (or ape) in monkish garb selling indulgences to a flock of bemused geese, 8vo (144 x 93mm.), Strasbourg, Johann Schott, 1528.

 Rare and charming early Protestant prayer book by the polymath German divine Otto Brunfels, who converted to Lutheranism after 13 years as a Carthusian monk and also became a celebrated physician and botanist - Linnaeus's hero as 'father of botany'. The fine illustrations are by Hans Weiditz the younger, the Strassburg-born 'Petrarch-master' (1495-1536), who was an associate of Durer, Holbein and Burgkmair. Elizabeth Savage, Early Colour Printing: German Renaissance Woodcuts at the British Museum (2021) gives considerable mention to the red printing of the title to this work.

D'Avenant (Sir William) THE PLATONICK LOVERS. A TRAGAE COMEDY, FIRST EDITION, J. P. KEMBLE'S COPY, each leaf window-mounted, title trimmed with loss of first letter and two other repairs with slight loss of text, final leaf similarly repaired with some loss of text but a duplicate leaf tipped in opposite, some headlines trimmed and a couple of other leaves with minor repairs, modern green morocco, gilt, g.e., [STC 6305], 4to, Printed for Richard Meighen, 1636.

 First edition of one of Davenant's most successful plays, the first recorded instance of the phrase 'Platonic love'. The Platonick Lovers can be argued to be one of the most successful satires in the English language: commissioned by the queen consort Henrietta Maria to write a play in praise of the tradition of courtly love (then very much in vogue with the court and especially the queen), Davenant instead subtly mocked the tradition and exposed its inherent snobbery. Whether the queen had a great capacity for self-mockery or whether she never picked up on the subtler meanings, the play remained a favourite of hers and was frequently performed at court.

Marvell (Andrew) MISCELLANEOUS POEMS, FIRST EDITION, edited by Mary Marvell, engraved portrait frontispiece, later 'fanfare' binding of olive green morocco, gilt, by Riviere, with inlays of green purple and tan morocco to a design of ribbons and floral sprays from a central gilt-lettered red morocco title panel, g.e., spine very slightly discoloured, [Wing M872; Grolier, Wither to Prior 536; Pforzheimer 671; Hayward 126], folio, for Robert Boulter, 1681.

 A sumptuous copy of the first and only early edition of Marvell's poems, complete with portrait and with a distinguished provenance. Every poem appears here in print for the first time, making this work arguably one of the greatest original single-volume collections of English verse of all time. Without, as usual, leaves R2-T1 and U2-T4 (suppressed poems on Cromwell), missing in all known copies save one in the BL.

Provenance: Roderick Terry (bookplate); Abel Berland (bookplate).

Cyrano de Bergerac (Savinien) THE COMICAL HISTORY OF THE STATES AND EMPIRES OF THE WORLDS OF THE MOON AND SUN, translated by A. Lovell, FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, engraved frontispiece by F.H. van Hove, contemporary calf, rebacked preserving original spine, a little rubbed, modern cloth drop-back box, [Barron 1-12; Wing C7717], 8vo, Printed for Henry Rhodes, 1687.

* IMPORTANT PRECURSOR TO THE SCIENCE-FICTION GENRE. Cyrano was influenced by the revolutionary ideas of Copernicus, Galileo, and Kepler. He created utopian societies to illustrate the satirical points of his political treatise. Several of these fantasy societies were to influence Swift fifty years later. One of the more remarkable passages in the book appears on pages 121-122 of Part One, in which Cyrano describes a machine which seems virtually identical to an iPod: "It was a Book, indeed; but a Strange and Wonderful Book, that had neither Leaves nor Letters: In fine, it was a Book, made wholly for the Ears, and not the Eyes. So that when any Body has a mind to read in it, he winds up that Machine, with a great many little Springs; then he turns the Hand to the Chapter which he desires to hear, and straight, as from the Mouth of a Man, or a musical Instrument, proceed all the distinct and different Sounds."

French Prophets.- Wharton (Hannah) SOME MANIFESTATIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS OF THE SPIRIT, IN A FORTY DAYS MINISTRATION IN THAT PLACE LONDON ..., FIRST EDITION, ink-mark to title foot obscuring manuscript signature, final ff. laid down, previous owner's ink signature to verso, scattered spotting and staining, near contemporary calf, rebacked, rubbed, bumping to corners and extremities, 12mo, Sold by Sam. Noble, 1730.

 Scarce. Only 6 on ESTC, with 3 in the UK at the British Library; Congregational Library and; Bodleian Library.

Hannah Wharton was a later member of the 'French Prophets' (c.1706-c.1750), an example of religious enthusiasm in British religious history. Their origins were inspired by the French 'Camisard Rising' in the Cévennes mountains of Southern France, and ended with the foundation of the Shakers in the late 1740's. The Shakers were seen to be the French Prophets spiritual successors.

The French Prophets presented themselves as a non-sectarian religious movement. They emphasized the religious experience, be it prophecy, glossolalia, thaumaturgy, singing or dancing, over liturgy and rituals. Hannah Wharton was one of the later, new generation of prophets who appeared occasionally around England during the 1720's-30's.

Fleming (Ian) CASINO ROYALE, FIRST EDITION, neat ink ownership inscription dated 1953 to front free endpaper along with small patch of browning, original boards with heart design and lettering in red, light bumping to head of spine and corners, clean and bright otherwise, first issue dust-jacket without Sunday Times review, head of spine and upper corners a little chipped, a few short nicks with light creasing to head, usual foxing to lower panel, small internal chip to upper panel, small patch of browning to front flat, light rubbing to extremities, an excellent example overall, preserved in custom morocco-backed drop-back box, 8vo, 1953.

 A bright and excellent example of the first James Bond novel. Increasingly difficult to find not price clipped and unrestored.

Fleming (Ian) LIVE AND LET DIE, FIRST EDITION, largely erased ink inscription to front free endpaper, "Stuttafords Book Shop Cape Town" label to front pastedown, original black boards lettered in gilt with gilt medallion to upper cover, slight bumping to spine ends, otherwise bright and clean, first state dust-jacket without credit to Kenneth Lewis to front flap, very slight toning to spine and rear panel, spine ends and corners chipped with neat paper restoration from verso, short nick to head of upper panel, light rubbing to joints, an excellent example generally, 8vo, 1954.

£4,000 - 6,000

Fleming (Ian) MOONRAKER, FIRST EDITION, FIRST STATE with "shoo" on p.10, neat ink ownership inscription dated 1955 to front free endpaper, original boards, lettered in silver, light crease to spine, dust-jacket, spine with light toning and a little creased at head, light surface soiling, small patch of surface wear to foot of upper panel, light rubbing to extremities, but an unusually bright and excellent copy, preserved in custom morocco-backed drop-back box, 8vo, 1955.

 The rare first state, especially unusual without any of the usual fading to the colour of the jacket.

£5,000 - 7,000

207

Fleming (Ian) DIAMONDS ARE FOREVER, FIRST EDITION, original boards, upper cover decorated in blind with silver diamond to centre, spine lettered in silver, near-fine, dust-jacket, very light toning to spine, head of spine and corners a little chipped, light cockling and soiling to rear panel, light rubbing to extremities, but an excellent copy generally, preserved in custom morocco-backed drop-back box, 8vo, 1956.

211

Fleming (Ian) ON HER MAJESTY'S SECRET SERVICE, original boards with ski trail design to upper cover, spine lettered in silver, dust-jacket, slight toning to spine, minor chipping to spine ends and corners, light creasing to head, 1963; The Diamond Smugglers, illustrations, ink ownership inscription to endpaper, original plain boards, dust-jacket, price-clipped, light sunning to spine, minor chipping to spine tips and corners, 1957; You Only Live Twice, first state, light browning to endpapers, original boards with Japanese characters in gilt to upper cover, spine lettered in silver, dust-jacket, very slight sunning to spine, light creasing to head, neat repair to foot of spine verso, 1964, FIRST EDITIONS, excellent or near-fine generally; and 2 others, including a first edition From Russia With Love in a later issue dust-jacket, 8vo (5)

Fleming (Ian) THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN GUN, FIRST EDITION, ORIGINAL FIRST STATE BOARDS WITH GOLDEN GUN ON UPPER COVER, variant issue with spine lettered in silver, very slight fading to spine, a bright and fine example, dust-jacket, very light toning to spine, a few short nicks with creasing to head, spot to upper panel, an excellent example, preserved in custom morocco-backed drop-back box, 8vo, 1965.

 A rare variant of the rare first state. The spine here lettered in silver rather than the usual gold as with the vast majority of copies.

£5,000 - 7,000

Fleming (Ian) GOLDFINGER, FIRST EDITION, SIGNED PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION FROM THE AUTHOR "To LIONEL, SOMETHING MORE TO READ! FROM IAN" on endpaper, light spotting to endpaper and fore-edge, original blind-stamp and gilt pictorial boards, very slight bumping to spine tips, else fine, dust-jacket, very slight toning to spine, minor chipping to spine tips and corners with neat tape repairs to verso, light creasing to head, light marking to lower panel, an excellent example overall, preserved in custom morocco-backed drop-back box, 8vo, 1959.

 AN EXCELLENT EXAMPLE WITH A CHARMING INSCRIPTION AND A GOOD ASSOCIATION OF THIS KEY JAMES BOND TITLE. SEEMINGLY ONE OF THE SCARCEST TITLES TO FINE INSCRIBED.

The recipient was Lionel Berry, 2nd Viscount Kemsley (1909-99), a politician and newspaper editor. His father, the 1st Viscount Kemsley, had given Fleming his first job as a journalist when he employed him as the Foreign Manager for the Kemsley newspaper group. It was this role, with its contracted three month break every winter to allow Fleming to holiday in Jamaica, that gave Fleming the opportunity to write the planned spy novel that would become Casino Royale.

Forsyth (Frederick) The Day of the Jackal, FIRST EDITION, SIGNED AND DATED BY THE AUTHOR to title, small contemporary ink gift inscription to front free endpapers, endpapers very lightly browned, original boards, dust-jacket, 8vo, 1971; along with ALS FROM THE AUTHOR, 2 photographs and a signed compliments slip from Edward Fox, together housed in a SANGORSKI & SUTCLIFFE BOX, red, blue, black and white oasis morocco, front cover with black morocco onlays and silver rule depicting a marksman and crosshairs, a very attractive copy, 8vo.

£1,000 - 1,500

Graves (Robert) TREASURE BOX, FIRST EDITION, [ONE OF 200 COPIES], THIS COPY SIGNED BY THE AUTHOR on title, two illustrations after Nancy Nicholson, original wrappers, expert repairs and retouches to inner hinge, re-sewn stitching to spine, housed in custom-made drop-back box with morocco spine label, 4to, Chiswick Press, [1919].

£600 - 800

* The true first edition, published a month before the first English edition, of Greene's classic gangster novel.

Typed letter signed from Greene to Mr H. Hallesy, teacher at Cumtawé Comprehensive School, recommending favourite books for 17-18 year olds to read, including Henry James, Conrad, H.G. Wells and others.

Greene (Graham) THE POWER AND THE GLORY, FIRST EDITION, usual light browning to half-title, bookplates of Florence and Edward Kaye and Edward Kobler to pastedown, light marginal toning, half-title working loose, original cloth, dust-jacket priced at 8s. 3d. unclipped, light creasing and fraying to spine ends and extremities, very faint surface soiling to lower panel, but an excellent example overall, [Wobbe A16], 8vo, 1940.

 Hailed by John Updike as "Graham Greene's masterpiece", the work was chosen by TIME magazine as one of the hundred best English-language novels since 1923. Bookplates of Florence and Edward Kaye, distinguished collectors of fiction from 1591-1974; and John Kobler, US biographer best known for his 1971 work on Al Capone. Rare in the dust-jacket, especially so in such excellent condition. Many of the copies were seemingly lost in the bombing of Heinemann's publishing house during the war.

£6,000 - 8,000

Hemingway (Ernest) FIESTA, FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, very light spotting to prelims, browning to endpapers, "Review Copy" ink stamp to front free endpaper, original cloth, light sunning to spine and lower cover, second impression dust-jacket, light toning to spine, spine with minor tearing and light creasing to head, short nick with creasing to head of upper panel, some light creasing across to spine and panels, but an exceptionally bright, near-fine example generally, [Hanneman 33A], 8vo, 1927.

 A superb example of the first English edition of Sun Also Rises. We can only trace one other example of the second impression jacket at auction and no example of the first impression jacket.

£5,000 - 7,000

 Born in New Zealand, Katherine Mansfield (1888-1923) was "one of the most highly regarded short story writers of the 20th century" (BL). Mansfield was both an admirer and rival of esteemed modernist Virginia Woolf who wrote after her death that she had "the only writing I have ever been jealous of. Probably we had something in common which I shall never find in anyone else" (Kirkpatrick).

Though printed in 1939, the outbreak of the Second World War delayed publication until 1947. The stories contained are a selection of Katherine Mansfield's most notable works from across her career; as such, the content slightly differs from the celebrated 1922 edition of the same name.

Edward Bawden, the Property of a Gentleman

Bawden (Edward) A SCRAPBOOK OF COSTUME AND FASHION DESIGNS inscribed 'E. Bawden 1924' to front free endpapers and with Bawden's bookplate to pastedown, with approx 120 original drawings, ranging from the medieval period to 19th century, covering English and French fashion of both male and female dress, c.60pp. excluding blanks, watercolour, pen and ink, and pencil, various sizes pasted down or tipped in to c.60pp album leaves, some loosely inserted, each leaf c.340 x 250mm (c.13 1/4 x 10 in), captions and annotations in pencil manuscript, some pages toned, original half morocco, rather rubbed, joints splitting, tall 8vo, 1924.

Africa.- Ogilby (John) Africa: BEING AN ACCURATE DESCRIPTION OF THE REGIONS OF AEGYPT, BARBARY, LYBIA, AND BILLEDULGERID, THE LAND OF NEGROES, GUINEE, AETHIOPIA, AND THE ABYSSINES, FIRST EDITION, engraved allegorical frontispiece, title in red and black, large folding double-page map of Africa, 43 engraved double-page maps, views, scenes and plans, 8 single-page plates, 9 sheets of letterpress tables (misbound), engraved initials, head-pieces and numerous illustrations to text, additional folding plate titled "Teneo te Africa" bound in at front, 2 facsimile maps bound in at rear, lacking half-title, map of Africa with tear at foot of inner margin and along horizontal fold, latter repaired but with small loss to image, several double-page plates with tear at foot of inner margin, most neatly repaired with paper to verso, slight creasing to a few plates, some light foxing or browning, armorial bookplate of William East, contemporary calf, rebacked, covers worn, rubbed, [Wing O163], folio, Printed by Tho. Johnson for the author, 1670.

* First edition of this important work on Africa, the most comprehensive work on Africa in English published in the seventeenth century, largely based on the work of Olfert Dapper. The letterpress tables, rather than being bound at the end of the preliminaries (as called for by Wing), are interspersed throughout the text.

America.- Martyr d'Anghiera (Peter) DE ORBE NOVO, edited by Richard Hakluyt, collation: a⁸, A-Z⁸, Aa-Rr⁸, woodcut printer's device to title, woodcut head-pieces and initials, WITH THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE ENGRAVED FOLDING MAP OF THE NEW WORLD, monogrammed 'LG' in ligature in lower left corner, possibly the French engraver Leonardo Gaultier, an excellent fine impression printing with light plate tone on 16th century laid paper with small spherical watermark [similar to Briquet 14056 and 14057, French, dateable to 1550s or slightly later], italic type, contemporary marginal annotation to leaf D1, some light foxing and browning, map with some light scattered spotting, mostly marginal, later parchment boards, ink title to spine, some soiling, spine darkened, 8vo (170 x 105mm.), Paris, Guillelmum Avray, 1587.

 Peter Martyr's authoritative chronicle of the Spanish conquest of the Americas, edited by Richard Hakluyt as part of an ongoing enterprise to encourage England's competitive expansion into the New World. Published the year before the Armada, the work is dedicated to Sir Walter Raleigh, an apparent promotion for Hakluyt's cause. The Latin text is drawn from the 1530 edition of Martyr's text, the first to be published with all eight "Decades".

The folding map, known as the Hakluyt-Martyr map, is a remarkable piece of cartography, exceedingly rare to find in its original situation. WE CANNOT TRACE A COPY APPEARING AT AUCTION WITH THE MAP PRESENT IN OVER A CENTURY. It covers North and South America, including part of Africa, Europe, and Pacific islands. New Guinea and Japan are shown partially blank. The overall shape of the coastline of America is greatly improved, eliminating the bulge to western South America commonly found in maps of the period. Most remarkable is the inclusion of "Virginea 1584", THE FIRST APPEARANCE OF THE NAME VIRGINIA ON A PRINTED MAP. An area entitled "Nuevo Mexico" with a large inland lake is also the first use of this term on a printed map.

Harding and W. H. Toms, 1733 [but circa 1740]

Provenance:

Probably purchased by a Scottish merchant in the 1740s;

Thence by descent to the present owner

Literature:

Babinski, Henry Popple's 1733 Map, 20-sheet map state 7

 ONE OF MOST IMPORTANT LARGE SCALE ENGLISH MAPS OF NORTH AMERICA PUBLISHED IN THE 18TH CENTURY.

Henry Popple's Map of the British Empire in America was originally intended as a means of refereeing the competing claims of the English, French and Spanish colonists and delineating their respective territories on North American soil. Popple lacked any formal training or experience as a mapmaker prior to this, his only known cartographic work. Accordingly, he made use of any available printed and manuscript maps he could get his hands on, consulting a variety of English and French sources; most notably Delisle's Carte de la Louisiane et du Cours du Mississippi, 1718, Guillaume Delisle's Carte du Canada, 1703 and the maps of Herman Moll. The resultant, monumental map - nearly eight feet squared when joined - bears witness to the rapidly growing knowledge of the interior of North America, with copies of Popple's map being sent to the governors of each English colony for official use.

"A fundamental centerpiece of any serious collection of North American maps" (Babinski, Henry Popple's 1733 Map, 1998, p. 151).

China, America & Canada.- PHOTOGRAPH ALBUM OF VIEWS OF CHINA, AMERICA AND CANADA, c.69 albumen prints on 61pp., 4 of which double-page, captioned in manuscript, some light spotting or soiling, mostly to leaves rather than prints, hinges tender but holding, contemporary half roan, lettered "America & China" in gilt on upper cover, rubbed, oblong folio, [c.1870s].

✿ Excellent album of views in China (c.30), America (c.28) and Canada (c.11). Compiled by Arthur Hobhouse and his wife while on route to India circa 1872-1876, where he was to succeed Sir James Fitzjames Stephen as a law member of the council of the Governor-General of India.

The four double-page views include the port of Amoy, the town and harbour of Hong Kong, the Hong Kong racecourse and the island of Macao, among other views of Hong Kong, Canton and "Foo chow fu" (Foochow) on the Min River. Other views include Yosemite National Park, including the giant sequoias in Mariposa Grove, Salt Lake City, including the Mormon Tabernacle, Niagara Falls, Montreal and Quebec. Particularly notable is the print "Quebec Quarter burnt May 1876", highlighting the consequences of the recent fire.

Provenance: Arthur Hobhouse, 1st Baron Hobhouse (1819-1904); thence by descent to the present owner.

France.- Braun (Adolphe) [GUERRE DE BELFORT], carbon print, mounted on card within buff-coloured border with printed credit "A. Braun a Dornach. [Haut-Rhin]", titled in pencil in unknown hand to head of mount, subtle small stain to upper right corner, some light spotting to mount, a few small closed tears to mount extremities, not affecting print, 357 x 470mm. (14 x 18 1/2 in.), [1870].

※ The town of Belfort, close to Braun's studio at Dornach, was besieged by German troops during the Franco-Prussian War but resisted until the general armistice of January 1871. This carbon print is considerably larger than the similar albumen print which appeared in Braun's Theatre de la Guerre, 1870-71. Perhaps significantly, its wider viewpoint includes at left the cannons and neatly stacked cannonballs which caused such damage to the roofs in the foreground.

Daniell (William) THE INDIAN RHINOCEROS (RHINOCEROS UNICORNIS), ALSO CALLED THE INDIAN RHINO, pencil on cream Whatman wove paper without watermark, sheet 225 x 300 mm (8 7/8 x 11 3/4 in), inscribed in pencil verso 'FAS 3681', possibly [?]The Fine Art Society, further numbered '229' in the upper left corner verso, scattered spotting, faint exposure lines to extreme edges, unframed, [circa 1790s]

Engraved:

'The Oriental annual, or, Scenes in India' by the Rev. Hobart Caunter, published by Edward Bull, London 1835

※ Distinctive pencil study that relates to two other "lost" drawings by Daniell, one of which was exhibited at the Helene C. Seiferheld Gallery, New York, in their exhibition 'Animal drawings from the XV to XX centuries' No. 8, December 1962. The present work corresponds to the engraving printed in reverse in 1835, and also includes the study of the rear of the rhino, which was lacking from the other 2 drawings but present in the engraving. Apparently a study made following an encounter with the 'Kotdwara Rhinoceros' in Uttar Pradesh, 1788 [see Archives of Natural History, June 1999, vol. 26, part 2, pp. 155-298].

Italy.- Italian School (probably late 16th century to 18th century) ALBUM CONTAINING 72 ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE SCULPTURAL RELIEFS ON TRAJAN'S COLUMN, a composite group with drawings by at least two variant hands, showing scenes illustrating the events of the Dacian Wars as depicted on Trajan's Column, pen and ink with wash, on various laid papers, some late 17th century and 18th century watermarks present, various sizes between 275 x 285 and 280 x 430 mm (11 x 17 in), all neatly mounted onto early 19th century wove paper album leaves, the earlier drawings with losses and extensive repairs, some laid onto support, heavy toning and surface dirt throughout, remboitage in 18th century morocco, rebacked, upper cover gilt with royal coat of arms of Phillip V of Spain, worn, oblong folio, [probably circa 1580 to 1780]

Provenance:

Private collection, Somerset, UK

* Cohesive collection of drawings by two artists from slightly different periods, both presumably familiar with the drawings of Girolamo Muziano (1528-1592), which were engraved by Francesco Villamena (c.1565-1624) and published in 1576. The drawings in the present album suggest that the artists were less interested in accurately recording the Column's frieze, but moreover illustrating the historic compositions with a contemporary style, which they presented in a horizontal format. The sculptural reliefs of Trajan's Column were to fascinate and inspire artists as diverse as Amico Aspertini, Francesco Primaticcio, Rubens, Nicolas Poussin, and Giovanni Battista Piranesi amongst many others.

Chinese astronomy.- Schlegel (Gustave) SING CHIN KHAO YOUN: URANOGRAPHIE CHINOISE, OU PREUVE DIRECTES QUE L'ASTRONOMIE PRIMITIVE EST ORIGINNAIRE DE LA CHINE..., 2 vol. [text and plate vol.], ONLY EDITION, folding table to vol. 1, 7 celestial maps in red and black to atlas vol., light marginal toning and spotting, slightly heavier to atlas vol., uniform modern burgundy morocco-backed boards, a little faded, still a very attractive set, [Houzeau & Lancaster 609], 8vo & oblong folio, The Hague and Leiden, E. J. Brill, 1875.

* This scholarly historical treatise of Chinese astronomy and the mapping of the heavens is rarely sold complete with the scarce atlas volume. Gustave Schelegel (1840-1903), a celebrated Dutch sinologist and field naturalist, began studying Chinese at the age of nine and made his first trip to China at the age of seventeen. In 1866 he published a monograph on the Tiandihui (Heaven and Earth Society), but is known for his magnum opus, his Dutch-Chinese dictionary, published in 4 volumes between 1882 and 1891.

Chen (Shigong) GEKA SEISÔ [LEGITIMATE SURGERY], 4 vol., original Chinese characters with Japanese reading marks, text in 9 vertical lines within single border, vol. 1 with 36 whole page illustrations, vol. 4 with diagram in text, extensive manuscript annotations in Chinese to margins and interlineating text, in a single hand in three colours of ink (vermillion, violet and black), a few instances of annotations corrected with opaque white, some worming across all vol., mainly marginal but affecting some letters and text although without significant loss, bound in the Japanese style in a Fukurotoji binding of original paper wrappers with original manuscript title slips, covers and extremities rubbed, housed within modern blue cloth wrap-around case with bone clasps, 8vo, Kyoto, Hayashi Gonobe, Hayashi Ihe and Takemura Kahe hatsuda, 1791.

 Later Japanese edition, edited by Ogino Gengai (1737-1808), of Wai Ke Zheng Zong (1617), one of the most important traditional Chinese medical works of the Ming Dynasty. This copy heavily annotated from a variety of sources demonstrating a detailed knowledge of Chinese medical classics in late eighteenth-century Japan; apparently in the same hand, three ink colours are associative with different scholars, such as Dôgyû Sensi (i.e. Irako Dôgyû, 1671-1734; violet). The blocks for three previous Japanese editions were destroyed in the great Kyoto fire of 1788.

Medicine.- Obstetrics.- Hobson (Benjamin) and Guan Moacai, FUEI SHINSETSU [MANUAL OF GYNECOLOGY, OBSTETRICS, AND THE NURSING CARE OF THE NEWBORN], 2 vol., FIRST JAPANESE EDITION, original Chinese characters with Japanese reading marks, text in 10 vertical lines within border, 41 woodcut illustrations, manuscript annotations in ink to upper margins, ink ownership stamps, bound in the Japanese style in a Fukurotoji binding of yellow wrappers with printed title slips, stitching renewed, 8vo, Kyoto, Tenkodo Zohan, 1859.

 First Japanese edition of Fuying Xinshuo (Shanghai 1858), a work instrumental in introducing Western obstetrics and gynaecology to China and Japan. Benjamin Hobson, a medic and missionary, wrote directly in Chinese, assisted by Guan Moacai, publishing several religious and medical texts in Shanghai. The annotations in this copy, are typical of the careful interventions of Japanese readers in traditional woodcut printed books.

Medicine.- Ophthalmology.- Sugita (Ryūkei) GANKA SHINSHO [A NEW BOOK ON EYE DISEASES], 6 vol. (5 vol. with additional supplement), FIRST JAPANESE EDITION, original Chinese characters with Japanese reading marks, text in 10 vertical lines within single border, vol. 1 with 11 illustrations printed in colour, supplement with 12 plain illustrations, extensive manuscript annotations in Chinese to margins, interlineating text and extra slip in vol. 5, two hands in red and black ink, vol. 5 and 6 with some marginal worming, worse in the latter affecting some text, a few odd spots throughout, bound in the Japanese style in a Fukurotoji binding of original yellow wrappers with printed title slips, rubbed, stitching renewed, housed within modern blue cloth wrap-around case with bone clasps, 8vo, Tokyo, Suharaya Mohe, 1815-16.

 First Japanese edition of Joseph Jacob's, Plenck Verhandeling over de oogziekten, itself a Dutch version of his Doctrina de morbis oculorum (1777); supplement by Ryūkei's student Matsuda Shū on the preparation of drugs according to the Dutch pharmacopeia. This book introduced European ophthalmology to Japan. This copy is heavily annotated by two contemporaneous expert Japanese practitioners, who not only refer to rare Japanese works, but also other un-translated Dutch texts such as by Georg Beer, Antonio Scarpa and Conrad Langenbeck. Illustrations printed in up to five colours, rather than hand-coloured, possibly by the artist Ishikawa Tairō (1765-1817).

Literature: I. Gabor Lukacs, Extensive marginalia in old Japanese Medical Books, 2010, pp. 141-171 (this copy). II. G. E. Mestler, A catalogue of old Japanese medical books, pp. 131-140 and 327-347.

ORIGINAL PAPERS.

Three Cases of Extirpation of diseased Ovaria.

By EPHRAIM McDOWELL, M. D. of Danville, Kentucky.

In December 1809, I was called to see a Mrs. Crawford, who had for several months thought herself pregnant. She was affected with pains similar to labour pains, from which she could find no relief. So strong was the presumption of her being in the last stage of pregnancy, that two physicians, who were consulted on her case, requested my aid in delivering her. The abdomen was considerably enlarged, and had the appearance of pregnancy, though the inclination of the tumor was to one side, admitting of an easy removal to the other. Upon examination, per vaginam, I found nothing in the uterus; which induced the conclusion that must be an enlarged ovary. Having never seen so large a substance extracted, nor heard of an attempt, or success attending any operation, such as this required, I gave to the unhappy woman information of her dangerous situation. She appeared willing to undergo an experiment, which I promised to perform if she would come to Danville, (the town where I live) a distance of sixty miles from her place of residence. This appeared almost impracticable by any, even the most favourable conveyance, though she performed the journey in a few days on horseback. With the assistance of my nephew and colleague, James McDowell, M.D., I commenced the operation, which was concluded as follows: Having placed her on a table of the ordinary height, on her back, and removed all her dressing which might in any way impede the operation, I made an incision about three inches from the musculus rectus abdominis, on the left side, continuing the same nine inches in length, parallel with the fibres of the above named muscle, extending

Ovariotomy.- McDowell (Ephraim) THREE CASES OF EXTIRPATION OF DISEASES OVARIA - contained in 'The Eclectic Repertory, and Analytical Review, Medical and Philosophical' vol. VII pp. 242-244, FIRST EDITION, light foxing, contemporary tree sheep, worn, spine broken, covers detached, preserved with a few items of ephemera in modern cloth drop-back box, red calf label, Philadelphia, 1817; with 2 biographies of McDowell, 8vo (3)

 ACCOUNT OF THE FIRST SUCCESSFUL OPERATION TO REMOVE AN OVARIAN TUMOUR AND ONE OF THE FIRST SURGICAL OPERATIONS ON THE ABDOMEN. McDowell had been called to see a Mrs Jane Todd Crawford in Green County, Kentucky, who was thought to be pregnant and past her due date. He diagnosed an ovarian tumour but warned that an operation to remove it would probably be fatal. She rode 60 miles on horseback to his house in Danville and on Christmas morning 1809, without any anaesthetic or antiseptic, McDowell removed a 22.5lb (10.2kg) tumour. The patient recovered and lived for another 32 years. McDowell did not publish this account until 1817, having performed two further similar operations.

One of the biographies of McDowell included in the lot is by his grand-daughter Mrs Valentine; it contains a loosely-inserted letter warning the recipient not to subscribe to a copy from Mrs. Valentine unless he receives the book before paying for it as she has a disreputable reputation.

Rutherford (Ernest) 'COLLISION OF A PARTICLES WITH LIGHT ATOMS. I: HYDROGEN.' in The London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Philosophical Magazine and Journal of Science, sixth series, vol. 37, no. 217 (June 1919), pp.[537]-586, FIRST EDITION, journal issue, equations and diagrams, modern library cloth-backed boards, original printed wrappers bound-in (library-stamped, lightly toned and spotted), [PMM 411], 8vo, 1919.

 The first announcement of the splitting of the atom. In 1911, as a result of bombarding gold foil with alpha particles, Rutherford formulated the hypothesis of the atom's nuclear construction on which all subsequent work in atomic physics and chemistry is based. He observed that while most of the alpha particles passed straight through the foil, some bounced back from it. Rutherford interpreted the bouncing in terms of his hypothesis and determined those that went through had passed through the planetary systems of electrons, while those that bounced back had hit, or interacted with, a nucleus. Notes:

This page features a large, intricate watermark-like design in the background. The design is composed of a central circular motif, surrounded by concentric circles and radiating lines. The central circle contains a stylized floral or mandala-like pattern. The entire design is rendered in a light, off-white color, creating a delicate watermark effect on a white page. The page is intended for notes, with a series of horizontal lines spaced evenly down the page for writing.

Definitions and interpretation

In these Terms of Sale, the words 'you', 'yours', etc. refer to you as the Bidder or Buyer as the context requires. The words "we", "us", etc. refer to the Auctioneer. Any reference to a 'Clause' is to a clause of these Terms of Sale unless stated otherwise.

To make these Terms of Sale easier to read, we have given the following words a specific meaning:

"Auctioneer" means Forum Auctions Limited, a company registered in England and Wales with registration number 10048705 and VAT number 236 0168 28 and whose registered office is located at Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS and/or its individual authorised auctioneer, as appropriate;

"Bidder" means a person participating or planning to participate in bidding at our auction;

"Bidding Platform" means any online bidding platform over which an auction is conducted allowing bidders to place bids. Bidding Platforms may be operated by the Auctioneer or by a third party service provider on the Auctioneer's behalf;

"Business Day" means any day that is not a weekend or public holiday in England and the Auctioneer is open for business;

"Buyer" means the Bidder who makes the highest bid for a Lot accepted by the Auctioneer by the fall of the hammer;

"Conditions of Business" means:

- (a) these Terms of Sale (bidding in Online Auctions is governed by our separate Online Terms of Sale);
- (b) the General Information for Buyers at Auction available in our catalogue and on our Website;
- (c) the listing of the Lot in our catalogue and on our Website including any special terms or symbols (please note that the most up-to-date listing will be on our Website);
- (d) any additional notice in relation to a Lot, whether in the saleroom, announced during an auction, on any Bidding Platform or our Website (in the event of any doubt about whether additional notices apply to the sale of a Lot, the information listed on our Website at the time of the auction will be deemed conclusive); and
- (e) our Website Terms of Use;

"Deliberate Forgery" means:

- (a) a copy or imitation made in our reasonable opinion with the intention of deceiving as to authorship, attribution, authenticity, origin, date, age, period, culture, provenance, source or material;
- (b) described in the catalogue entry (as amended by any saleroom or Website notice) without qualification or any indication that there may be any uncertainty or conflict of opinion in relation to the work being such a copy or imitation; and
- (c) which at the date of the auction or sale had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been as described;

"Estimate" means the price range within which, in our opinion, a Lot may reasonably be expected to sell. A reference to the "low Estimate" means the lower figure in such price range;

"Hammer Price" means the level of the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer for a Lot by the fall of the hammer;

"Live Auction" means a live public auction where members of the public are given the possibility of attending the sale in person.

"Lot(s)" means an item offered for sale or a group of items offered together;

"Online Auction" means an auction held over the Website or any Bidding Platform where members of the public are not given the possibility of attending the sale in person;

"Premium" means the fee that we will charge you on your purchase of a Lot to be calculated as set out in Clause 9.1.2 of these Terms of Sale;

"Pledge" means any security or charge over a Lot in favour of ourselves or any third party;

"Reserve" means the minimum Hammer Price at which a Lot may be sold;

"Seller" means the person(s) who consign Lots for sale at our auctions;

"Terms of Sale" means these standard terms of the contract of sale that a Bidder enters into when registering to bid in any Live Auction, as amended or updated from time to time;

"VAT" means Value Added Tax or any equivalent sales tax at the rate from time to time applicable;

"Website" means our website available at www.forumauctions.co.uk; and

"Website Terms of Use" means the terms of use of our Website as amended from time to time.

1. The contract between you, us and the Seller

- 1.1 Unless the Auctioneer is selling on its own behalf, the Auctioneer acts as agent for and on behalf of the Seller and the contract for sale is between the Buyer and the Seller.
- 1.2 Subject to the Auctioneer's discretion at Clause 3.2, the contract for sale of a Lot is formed on the fall of the hammer.
- 1.3 The contractual relationship between Bidders or Buyers, the Auctioneer and the Seller in relation to any Live Auction is governed by our Conditions of Business.
- 1.4 If you breach these Terms of Sale, you may be responsible for damages and/or losses suffered by a Seller or us. If we are contacted by a Seller who wishes to bring a claim against you, we may at our discretion provide the Seller with information or assistance in relation to that claim.
- 1.5 As agent for the Seller, we will not have any responsibility for any default or breach of obligations by you or the Seller (unless we are the Seller of the Lot).
- 1.6 If you purchase an unsold Lot after an auction, the contract for sale is formed when the sale is agreed in writing and the Price of the Lot shall be as set out at clause 9 except that any reference to Hammer Price shall be read as the agreed sale price. So far as appropriate, the remainder of these Terms of Sale shall apply to the sale as they would to an auction sale.

2. Bidder registration

- 2.1 You must register your details with us before bidding and provide us with any requested proof of identity, billing information and any further client due diligence information and documentation that we require, in a form acceptable to us.
- 2.2 We may at our complete discretion refuse to register any Bidder or delay registration if we are not satisfied with the information or documentation provided or the Bidder's creditworthiness, including if the Bidder has previously defaulted in paying for or collecting purchases.
- 2.3 If you are a returning Bidder, we may at our discretion require that you provide updated identity and other documentation before permitting you to bid in an auction.
- 2.4 We do not undertake to register any Bidder in time for any specific auction.
- 2.5 If you are bidding on behalf of another person, you will need to disclose such information in advance of the auction and that person may also need to complete our registration and client due diligence process and provide us with written authority to accept bids from you on his/her/its behalf. If we are not informed of these arrangements in advance of an auction or do not have clear written authority in place, you will be deemed to be bidding as principal for your own account.
- 2.6 If you intend to bid on a Lot using pre-approved financing by a third party lender, you must notify us at the time of registration or at the time of securing financing, obtain our agreement to the arrangements and provide any further information or documentation that we may require.
- 2.7 You may de-register at any time on request. This will leave any accrued rights and obligations unaffected.

3. Bidding procedures

- 3.1 You may bid in any of the following ways following successful registration to bid:
 - 3.1.1 in person;
 - 3.1.2 by telephone, in which case you must make such arrangements at least 24 hours before the start of the auction;
 - 3.1.3 by leaving a commission bid at least 1 hour before the start of the auction, which we may execute on your behalf. Commission bids will be accepted with reference to our standard bidding increments and any off-increment bids may be reduced to the next increment immediately below at the Auctioneer's sole discretion. Neither we nor our employees or agents will be responsible for any failure to execute your commission bid. Where two or more commission bids at the same level are recorded we have the right, at our sole discretion, to prefer one over any others, without providing any reasons; or

- 3.1.4 online bidding via our BidFORUM platform or via another Bidding Platform. In the case of bids via BidFORUM our Website Terms of Use and for bids via another Bidding Platform, any additional terms of use or conditions imposed by the third party provider including any additional charges will also apply.

- 3.2 The Bidder placing the highest bid for a Lot accepted by the Auctioneer on the fall of the hammer is the successful Buyer and bound by the contract formed pursuant to Clause 1.2 and governed by the Conditions of Business pursuant to Clause 1.3, unless the Auctioneer has for any reason at its/his/her option refused the bid, reopened the bidding or cancelled the sale and reoffered the Lot. Any dispute about a bid will be settled at our sole discretion, giving due consideration to any circumstances and acting reasonably. We may settle disputes at our discretion in any way we think fit including by re-offering the Lot and our decision will be final. If there is any discrepancy between our record of an auction and the information provided in any communication to you, our record will prevail.

- 3.3 We may withdraw a Lot at any time prior to or during the sale of the Lot. We will not be liable to you for our decision to withdraw a Lot.

- 3.4 We may bid on Lots on behalf of the Seller up to one bidding increment below the Reserve.

- 3.5 We may at our sole discretion refuse to accept any bid.

- 3.6 We do not accept responsibility for any bids missed by the Auctioneer.

- 3.7 Bidding increments will be set at the Auctioneer's sole discretion.

4. Technical issues

We are not responsible for any technical problems that you may experience while connecting to and using our Website and/or BidFORUM or participating in any auctions, including but not limited to any loss of internet connection, problems with using our bidding software or any hardware faults. We do not accept any liability for any delay or failure in placing a bid, any failure to execute bids or any errors or omissions owing to technical failings, whether on our part or yours.

5. Inspection of Lots

- 5.1 The Auctioneer provides descriptions, Estimates, illustrations and condition reports (on request) to assist Bidders in deciding whether to bid on a Lot but subject to Clause 8 accepts no responsibility for their accuracy.

- 5.2 Each Lot offered for sale is available for inspection. We strongly recommend that you inspect any Lots that you are interested in prior to bidding at the auction. You are responsible for your decision to bid for a particular Lot and for undertaking your own due diligence in relation to the Lot. If you bid on a Lot, you will be deemed to have carefully inspected the Lot and satisfied yourself regarding its quality and condition.

6. Estimates

Estimates are provided as a guide to what, in our opinion, the sale price of a Lot is reasonably likely to be. The Estimate is not a guarantee of what the actual selling price or value may be and cannot be relied on as such. The estimate does not take into account Premium, VAT or any other applicable charges.

7. Seller's warranties

- 7.1 The Seller warrants to us and to you in relation to each Lot that:
 - 7.1.1 the Seller is the owner of the Lot for sale or a joint owner of the Lot acting with the co-owner's consent or, if acting on the owner's behalf, is authorised by the owner to offer and sell the Lot at auction;
 - 7.1.2 the Seller is able to transfer clear legal title to the Lot, subject to any restrictions set out in the Lot description, to you free from any third party rights or claims; and

- 7.1.3 as far as the Seller is aware, the main characteristics of the Lot set out in the auction catalogue (as amended by any notice displayed in the saleroom, on our Website or any Bidding Platform or announced by the Auctioneer at the auction) are correct.
- 7.2 If any of the Seller's warranties above are found not to be true, neither we nor the Seller will be liable, under any circumstances, to pay you any sums over and above the Price.
- 7.3 Save as expressly set out above, all other warranties, conditions or other terms which might have effect between the Seller and you or be implied or incorporated by statute, common law or otherwise are excluded to the fullest extent that they can be lawfully excluded.

8. Descriptions and condition

- 8.1 Our descriptions of the Lot will be based on: (a) information provided to us by the Seller of the Lot (for which we are not liable); and (b) our opinion (as set out in Clause 8.3).
- 8.2 We will give you a number of opportunities to view and inspect the Lots before the auction. You (including any agents or consultants acting on your behalf) must satisfy yourself about the accuracy of any description of a Lot and of any other characteristics of a Lot relevant to your decision to place a bid. We shall not be responsible for your failure to properly inspect a Lot.
- 8.3 Any statements by us about any Lot, including but not limited to its authorship, attribution, authenticity, origin, date, age, period, culture, provenance, source, material, condition or estimated selling price, whether oral or in writing, are matters of our opinion genuinely held but are not to be relied on as a statement of fact or contractual representation. We do not warrant that we have carried out a detailed inspection of each Lot. Any references to dimensions or weight are approximate only.
- 8.4 Any photographs that we provide are for identification purposes only and may not reveal a Lot's condition or be accurate in colour or other features.
- 8.5 Please note that the majority of Lots sold by the Auctioneer are second-hand and will not be in perfect condition. Lots are sold "as is" at the time of the auction. Neither we nor the Seller accept any liability for the condition of any Lot.
- 8.6 Condition reports are provided by us free of charge (on request) as a guide for the Bidder/Buyer but are not intended to be exhaustive assessments of an item's condition and may not refer to all flaws or defects in an item. Furthermore, the Auctioneer and its employees are not trained conservators and can only offer their opinion on condition. You must rely on your own assessment or independent professional advice in relation to the condition of any Lot.

9. Our charges

- 9.1 As Buyer, you will pay us:
 - 9.1.1 the Hammer Price;
 - 9.1.2 Premium of 25% of the Hammer Price up to a Hammer Price of £300,000 plus 20% of the Hammer Price from £300,001 to £3,000,000 plus 12.5% of the Hammer Price exceeding £3,000,000 plus VAT thereon (as set out in Clause 11);
 - 9.1.3 any VAT, Import VAT or other duties, fees or taxes applicable to the Lot (as set out at Clause 11);
 - 9.1.4 any artist's resale right royalty payable on the sale of the Lot (as set out at Clause 12);
 - 9.1.5 any additional charges payable by a late paying or defaulting Buyer under these Terms of Sale; and
 - 9.1.6 in respect of bids placed through certain Bidding Platforms operated by third party service providers, a charge of 5% of the Hammer Price plus VAT if applicable, together the "Price".

10. Buyer's warranties

- 10.1 You warrant to us that:
 - 10.1.1 any client due diligence information or documentation provided to us in accordance with Clause 2.1 is and continues to be true and accurate.
 - 10.1.2 the funds used to purchase the Lot are not the proceeds of any criminal activity, including tax evasion;
 - 10.1.3 you are not engaged in, or under investigation for, and have not been previously charged for or convicted of any offences in relation to money laundering, terrorist financing, tax evasion, fraud or other criminal behaviour;
 - 10.1.4 you are not subject to trade sanctions, embargoes or any other restrictions prohibiting you from doing business in the United Kingdom;
 - 10.1.5 if you are purchasing a Lot on behalf of a third party, you have:
 - a. complied with any applicable anti-money laundering and terrorist financing laws and regulations and conducted appropriate client due diligence on the third party ultimate buyer, have obtained and kept a record of documents required to establish that person's identity, and have no reason to suspect or believe that he/she/it is engaged in money laundering, terrorist financing, tax evasion, fraud or other criminal behaviour or subject to trade sanctions, embargoes or other restrictions prohibiting that person from doing business in the United Kingdom or that the funds provided by the third party are the proceeds of any criminal activity, including tax evasion;
 - b. you have authority to bid on that Lot on behalf of your principal; and
 - c. you have been placed in funds by your principal to cover the Price and any additional fees and charges

11. VAT and other duties

- 11.1 You shall be solely responsible for ascertaining the overall cost of your bid and paying any applicable VAT and other fees, taxes or duties payable in addition to the Hammer Price and Premium for a Lot.
- 11.2 We will charge VAT and other duties, fees and taxes at the current rate at the date of the auction. Please see the symbols used in the auction catalogue and our General Information for Buyers at Auction for an explanation of what those symbols mean.
- 11.4 It is your responsibility to establish whether a Lot may be subject to export restrictions, duties, taxes or fees.
- 11.5 Please note that Lots (in particular second-hand Lots) are unlikely to be in perfect condition. Lots are sold "as is" (i.e. as you see them at the time of the auction). Neither we nor the Seller accept any liability for the condition of second-hand Lots which the inspection of a Lot by the Buyer ought to have revealed.

12. Artist's resale royalty

- 12.1 Works by certain artists sold in the EU are subject to royalty fees accruing to the artist or their estate. The fees are levied in Euros on a sliding scale relative to Hammer Price and capped at €12,500 per item. We will collect these fees from you on behalf of the artist and add the GBP Sterling equivalent amount to your invoice calculated at the date of the auction by reference to the closing rate of exchange of the Bank of England.
- 12.2 Lots that may be subject to artist's resale right are marked in the catalogue and on our Website with the symbol: ARR.
- 12.3 If applicable, artist's resale right royalty (in Euros) is charged at:
 - 4% of the Hammer Price up to €50,000
 - 3% of the Hammer Price from €50,001 to €200,000
 - 1% of the Hammer Price from €200,001 to €350,000
 - 0.5% of the Hammer Price from €350,001 to €500,000
 - 0.25% of the Hammer Price above €500,000, subject to an overall cap of €12,500.

13. Payment

13.1 Following your successful bid on a Lot you will:

- 13.1.1 immediately give to us, if not already provided to our satisfaction, any further proof of identity or other information that we may require; and
- 13.1.2 unless we have agreed otherwise and subject to the terms of any Pledge, pay to us the Price within 3 Business Days of the date of the auction in cleared funds in GBP Sterling any way that we agree to accept payment including in cash (for which there is an aggregate upper limit of £8,000 for all purchases made in any auction). Please see our 'Make a Payment' page at <https://www.forumauctions.co.uk/makepayment?Itemid=363> for further information about how to make a payment. A 3% fee is applied to payments made by all company credit cards and personal cards issued by banks outside the EU.

13.2 If payment is late, we reserve the right to charge interest on the Price or any part thereof in accordance with Clause 15.1.5.

13.3 If you owe us any money, we may use any payment made by you to repay prior debts before applying such monies towards your purchase of the Lot(s).

13.4 All Lots sold will be invoiced in the name of the registered Bidder at the address given to us at the time of registration and cannot be transferred to other names or addresses.

14. Ownership and collection of Lots

14.1 Ownership of a Lot will transfer to you only on receipt by us of the Price in full and in cleared funds provided your continuing compliance with Clause 10.

14.2 Risk of loss or damage to the Lot will pass to you at the fall of the Hammer or when you have otherwise purchased the Lot.

14.3 You may not claim or collect a Lot until you have paid for it and we are satisfied with the client due diligence information and documentation that you have provided. We may refuse to accept payment or release the Lot to you if we require further information or verification.

14.4 If you have purchased a Lot using third party pre-approved financing, with our knowledge and agreement, and the Lot remains subject to a Pledge, we will hold the Lot until we receive confirmation from the beneficiary of the Pledge that we are authorised to release the Lot. In such cases, time starts to run under Clauses 14.5 to 14.7 below from the date that we inform you that the Lot can be released, rather than the date of the auction.

14.5 You must (at your own expense) collect any Lots that you have purchased and paid for no later than 10 Business Days following the date of the auction.

14.6 If you do not collect the Lot within the time period at Clause 14.5, you will be responsible for removal, storage and insurance charges in relation to that Lot which will be no less than £1.50 per Lot per day.

14.7 If you do not collect a Lot that you have paid for within 45 days of the date of the auction, we may resell the Lot by auction or private treaty with the Estimate and Reserve set at our discretion. We will pay the proceeds of any such sale to you, but will deduct any storage charges or other sums that we have incurred in the storage and sale of the Lot. We reserve the right to charge you a selling commission at our standard rates on any such resale of the Lot.

15. Remedies for non-payment

15.1 If you fail to comply with these Terms of Sale, we may (acting on behalf of the Seller and ourselves) pursue one or more of the following measures:

- 15.1.1 take action against you to recover the Price and/or pursue damages for breach of contract, including any fees, legal expenses or other costs that we incur;
- 15.1.2 reverse the sale of the Lot to you and/or any other Lots sold to you (in which case we may charge you an administration fee of £150 plus VAT per Lot or, if lower, the Price of the Lot);

- 15.1.3 resell the Lot by auction or private treaty (in which case you will have to pay any deficit between the Price for the Lot and the Hammer Price we sell it for as well as the charges outlined in Clauses 14.6 and 15.1.5 and any other costs and expenses or legal fees incurred by us in reselling the Lot or any loss to us of Seller's commission). Please note that if we resell the Lot for a higher amount than the Hammer Price on the sale of the Lot to you, the additional sale proceeds will be paid to the Seller and we will retain any increase in Premium;
- 15.1.4 remove, store and insure the Lot at your expense until you pay the Price together with any removal, storage and insurance fees as set out in Clause 14.6 or we agree alternative arrangements;
- 15.1.5 charge interest at a rate of 1.5% per month on the Price or any part remaining unpaid after 10 Business Days have elapsed from the day of the auction;
- 15.1.6 assist the Seller in pursuing you for payment and/or damages including by revealing your identity and contact details;
- 15.1.7 keep the Lot, any other Lot sold to you or any item(s) consigned for sale by you as security for payment until you pay the Price;
- 15.1.8 apply any payments or part payments made by you towards part settlement of the Price due for the Lot or any other Lot purchased by you, or to any shortfall on the resale of any Lot pursuant to Clause 15.1.3 or to any outstanding removal, storage or insurance charges owed by you to us in relation to any Lot that you have purchased or to any loss or damage suffered by us as a result of your failure to comply with these Terms of Sale;
- 15.1.9 refuse to allow you to register to bid, reject or ignore bids from you or your agent at future auctions or impose conditions before we accept bids from you;
- 15.1.10 offset any amounts due from you against any amounts that we may owe you, including if we sell any Lots for you; and/or
- 15.1.11 take any other action we consider necessary.

16. Health and safety

Although we take reasonable precautions regarding health and safety, you are on our premises at your own risk. Please note the lay-out of the premises and security arrangements. Neither we nor our employees or agents are responsible for the safety of you or your property when you visit our premises, unless you suffer any injury to your person or damage to your property as a result of our, our employees' or our agents' negligence or wilful default.

17. Export and import restrictions

17.1 Exporting a Lot out of the United Kingdom or importing it into another country may be subject to legal requirements and restrictions depending on factors such as the type of goods, their age and monetary value and destination. It is your responsibility to ascertain what the requirements are in relation to any Lot and obtain the necessary export or import licence where applicable.

17.2 Lots made of restricted organic matter or endangered species are identified in the catalogue. These may be subject to prohibitions on export or import and otherwise may require licences. You are solely responsible for identifying and obtaining any necessary licence. The information provided in our catalogue reflects our reasonable opinion at the date of publication but is intended as guidance only and neither the Auctioneer nor the Seller make any representation or give any warranty as to whether any Lot is subject to a prohibition or restriction on export or import.

17.3 You acknowledge that your purchase of the Lot and fulfilment of your obligations under our Conditions of Business is not conditional on successfully obtaining an export, import or other licence or permit for any Lot and that you will pay for and collect the Lot regardless of whether a licence has been or is likely to be granted. We will not cancel your purchase of a Lot if for any reason it is refused a licence or is seized or confiscated by government authorities.

17.4 We may on request assist you with applying for a licence to export your Lot(s) out of the United Kingdom and will charge a fee for doing so to cover the costs of our time and out of pocket expenses.

18. Deliberate Forgeries

18.1 You may return any Lot which is found to be a Deliberate Forgery to us within twelve months of the date of the auction provided that you return the Lot to us at your expense in the same condition as when it was released to you, accompanied by a written report by a recognised expert on the subject matter identifying the Lot as a Deliberate Forgery with reference to the catalogue description and fully explaining the reasoning behind any conclusions drawn in the report.

18.2 If we are reasonably satisfied that the Lot is a Deliberate Forgery, we will cancel the sale of the Lot and refund the Price to you save that if any of the following circumstances apply:

- 18.2.1 the catalogue description reflected the accepted view of experts as at the date of the auction;
- 18.2.2 the Lot can only be shown to be a Deliberate Forgery on the basis of scientific examination which was not available at the time of the auction or in the circumstances was not practicable or reasonable to expect;
- 18.2.3 you were not the original Buyer of the Lot named on the invoice for the Lot issued at the time of the sale; or
- 18.2.4 you personally are not able to transfer clear legal title in and right to possession of the Lot to us, free of any claim, interest or restriction by anyone else, on the date of the return of the Lot to us, you will have no right to cancel the sale or receive a refund.

18.3 Should you successfully exercise your right under this Clause 18, we will not refund to you more than the Price for any Lot and will not in any circumstances be liable to you for any loss, damage, expense, costs, loss of profit, loss of business or loss of opportunity.

19. Limitation of our liability to you

19.1 We give no warranties in relation to any statements or representations made or information given in relation to any Lot by us or our employees or agents whether oral or in writing and accept no liability in connection therewith, including in relation to any errors or omissions unless Clause 18 applies.

19.2 We accept no liability in relation to any of the Seller's warranties at Clause 7 or any breach by the Seller of their obligations under our Conditions of Business.

19.3 We do not accept any responsibility to any Bidders for any failure to register a Bidder or any acts or omissions in relation to the sale of Lots and the conduct of our auctions and will not be liable for any loss, damage, expense, costs, loss of profit, loss of business or loss of opportunity as a result of participating in our auctions.

19.4 If we are found to be liable to you for any reason, our liability will be limited to the Price as paid by you to us for any Lot.

19.5 Notwithstanding the above, nothing in these Terms of Sale shall limit our liability (or that of our employees or agents) for:

- 19.5.1 death or personal injury resulting from negligence;
- 19.5.2 fraudulent misrepresentation; or
- 19.5.3 any liability which cannot be excluded by law.

20. Notices

20.1 All notices or other communications between you and us regarding our Conditions of Business must be in writing and may be given:

- 20.1.1 by delivering it by hand or sending by first class pre-paid post or Recorded Delivery or pre-paid airmail (to us at our registered office address at Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS or to you at the address you provided to us at the time of registration unless we are advised otherwise in writing); or
- 20.1.2 by email (to us at office@forumauctions.co.uk or to you at the email address provided by you at the time of registration unless we are advised otherwise in writing).

20.2 Notices will be deemed to have been received:

- 20.2.1 if delivered by hand, on the day of delivery;
- 20.2.2 if sent by first class pre-paid post or Recorded Delivery, 2 Business Days after posting, exclusive of the day of posting;
- 20.2.3 if sent by pre-paid airmail, 5 Business Days after posting, exclusive of the day of posting; or
- 20.2.4 if sent by email, at the time of transmission unless sent on a day which is not a Business Day or after 17.00 in the place of receipt in which case they will be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.

21. Data Protection

We will hold and process any personal data in relation to you in accordance with our Privacy Policy which can be accessed at: www.forumauctions.co.uk/privacy-policy.

22. General

22.1 We may at our sole discretion, though acting reasonably, refuse any person admission to our premises or attendance at our auctions.

22.2 Any rights we have to claim against you for breach of our Conditions of Business may be used by either us, our employees or agents, or the Seller, their employees or agents, as appropriate. Other than as set out in this Clause, no other person will have any rights to enforce the terms of our Conditions of Business.

22.3 Each of the Clauses of these Terms of Sale operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining Clauses will remain in full force and effect.

22.4 Except as otherwise stated in these Terms of Sale, each of our rights and remedies: (a) are in addition to and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies under these Terms of Sale or general law; and (b) may be waived only in writing and specifically. Our delay in exercising or non-exercise of any right under these Terms of Sale is not a waiver of that or any other right. Our partial exercise of any right under these Terms of Sale will not preclude any further or other exercise of that right or any other right under these Terms of Sale. Our waiver of a breach of any term of these Terms of Sale will not operate as a waiver of breach of any other term or any subsequent breach of that term.

22.5 Our Conditions of Business and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them (including any non-contractual claims or disputes) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
